Declared Disaster Distribution as provided in Circular Letter No. 22-13 and the Plan Document

Declared Disaster Distribution*

TYPE OF PAYMENT:

- Partial In-Service Withdrawal, Amount requested $ _____. If the amount requested exceeds the maximum available for distribution, Banco Popular will process the distribution for the maximum available.
- Lump Sum (this option is only available to terminated participants with the Employer.), please state Termination Date: _____ (required).

* Declared Disaster Distributions must be made by or before December 6, 2022. In addition, the twelvemonth deferral suspension that normally affects employees who take hardship distributions will not apply. Popular Fiduciary Services will only process requests received on or before December 6, 2022 to ensure payment is issued on or before December 31, 2022.

 Amount requested cannot exceed: 1) the Plan's Declared Disaster Distribution Limit, or 2) $100,000 as stated in Circular Letter No. 22-13 promulgated by the Puerto Rico Treasury Department ("CL 22-13"). Please consider that the $100,000 limit stated by CL 22-13 is in aggregate and therefore participant must consider any other Declared Disaster Distributions made during the period from October 6, 2022 to December 31, 2022.

REDEMPTION OF FUNDS:

The sale of funds will be made proportionally between the investment funds and sources available upon distribution processing.

WARNINGS:

1. Pursuant to the CL 22-13, Declared Disaster will be taxed as followed:
 - The first $10,000 will not be taxed.
 - Any distribution in excess of $10,000 will be taxed at source at a rate of 10%.
2. The amounts to be distributed are deemed to come first from the taxable contributions and earnings. If these funds are not sufficient to cover the distribution, funds will be taken from the non-taxable base, such as voluntary contributions ("after-tax") and prepaid amounts.
3. The Trustee will file Form 480.7C to the Puerto Rico Treasury Department with a copy to you.
4. Your account may be assessed a fee as outlined in the Fee Disclosure Report.
5. The processing of the distribution request will be delayed if this form is not properly completed.
