

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Andanza, Inc.	657 Calle Condado Suite 200 San Juan PR 00907 María D. “Lolita” Villanúa andanzapr9@gmail.com Tel: 787-375-8036	Andanza is a non-profit company and dance school that has developed an intense socio-cultural program. At Fundación Banco Popular we support Danza con Andanza, a program that offers scholarships in its schools and weekly dance workshops for children and teens from low-income communities to contribute to their personal and academic development.	Caguas, Carolina, Comerío, Dorado, Guaynabo, San Juan
Asamblea Familiar Virgilio Dávila	PMB 113 A PO Box 607071 Bayamón PR 00960-7071 Aracelis Cifredo Fontánez asambleafamiliar@gmail.com Tel: 787-269-0325	Organization founded with the purpose of providing educational services in an extended hour tutoring program to prevent school dropout for children and young people between the ages of 6 and 14. Fundación Banco Popular supports its holistic care program that includes: supervised assignments, sports, judo, social work, psychological services, touring, dancing, values, snacks, extracurricular activities, sports, behavior modification, and a summer camp held during June.	Bayamón

Organization	Address & Contact Information		Geographic Area Impacted
Asociación de Comunidades Unidas Tomando Acción Solidaria (ACUTAS)	PO Box 52 Toa Baja PR 00951 Waldemiro Vélez acutaspr@gmail.com Tel: 787-923-2868	Entity born as an effort of volunteer neighbors to clean the mud-covered homes resulting from the flood caused by Hurricane María in the communities of Villas del Sol and Villa Calma in Toa Baja. Its mission is to promote initiatives that improve the quality of life of children, youth and the elderly; and promote the self-sufficiency and socio-economic development of residents. The entity has created and offered workshops on art, literature, muralism, management, social networks and graphic art. It has also institutionalized a youth micro-enterprise initiative for screen printing, community cooking, women's reading workshops and health fairs Fundación Banco Popular supports its food care program aimed at impacting community kitchens, which are also incubation projects for community micro-enterprises.	Toa Baja
Asociación de Padres y Amigos Orquestas Secundarias y Superiores, Inc. (APAOSS)	PO Box 193643 San Juan PR 00919-3643 Marisol Cruz Concepción apaoss@yahoo.com Tel: 787-477-9759	Non-profit corporation composed of volunteers, whose mission is to expose students at the Free Schools of Music of PR to new challenges that will lead to musical excellence. The Ricardo Morales Sáez annual scholarship is a proprietary project of Fundación Banco Popular. The donation given to APAOSS also covers master classes, concerts, community performances, orchestra workshops, bands, choir, symphony events, and external resources.	San Juan

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Asociación Mayagüezana de Personas con Impedimentos (AMPI)	PO Box 745 Mayagüez PR 00681 Esther L. Caro caro_esther@yahoo.com Tel: 787-640-2922	Entity founded with the purpose of promoting the improvement of the quality of life of adults with mental retardation, through direct service programs that increase their inclusion and integration into society. It currently manages three homes for adults with intellectual disabilities, provides daytime services through two direct service programs, provides guidance, and coordinates legal services for low-income families. At Fundación Banco Popular we support AMPI in its mission to provide day services to participants with mild and severe intellectual disabilities.	Mayagüez
Asociación Pro Juventud y Comunidad de Barrio Palmas	PO Box 63476 Cataño PR 00963-0476 María Torres Ramos mtorres.apj@gmail.com Tel: 787-788-5105	Non-profit organization founded by a group of citizens concerned about the high degree of social marginalization, economic depression, low schooling and use of controlled substances in the community of Barrio Palmas in Cataño. Its central goal is the social, economic and cultural development of young people, seen in the context of the family and the community. The Fundación Banco Popular grant supports the extended hours tutoring program for children and young students in Cataño to improve academic performance and promote healthy lifestyles.	Cataño
ASPIRA de Puerto Rico	RD 8887 San Antón Ward Carolina PR 00987 Aspirapr@aspirapr.org Tel: 787-750-0505	ASPIRA, Inc. de PR (ASPIRA) is a recognized community-based organization committed since 1969 to comprehensive training and leadership development in PR. ASPIRA implements educational programs aimed at increasing school retention, high school graduation rate and access to postsecondary education. The Fundación Banco Popular donation contributes to provide comprehensive life education for youth in Aguada, Carolina, Mayagüez and Moca.	Carolina

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Beta-Local, Inc.	PO BOX 9023697 San Juan PR 00902-3697 Pablo Guardiola pablo@betalocal.org Tel: 414-377-0171	Beta-Local is a non-profit and community space organization founded in Old San Juan on democratic principles and artistic experimentation. Its mission is to promote thought, action and critical and creative production with education, exhibition and production programs. Fundación Banco Popular supports the program “La Iván Illich,” which functions as an open school with flexible, democratic and collaborative structure in which anyone can propose a course, workshop, conference, reading group or other type of knowledge exchange.	San Juan
Boys & Girls Clubs de Puerto Rico	Central Office 501 Avenue R H. Todd San Juan PR 00907 Olga Ramos olga.ramos@bgcpr.org Tel: 787-206-5148	Non-profit organization with more than 50 years of service that has impacted more than 70,000 children and young people since its founding. Its mission is to offer children and young people hope for a better future and opportunities to develop to their full potential. At Fundación Banco Popular we support the operations of the Media Center in the Loíza Club that provides young people between the ages of 12 and 18 with the tools and techniques necessary to develop artistic and business skills.	Loíza
Caras con Causa	PO Box 192386 San Juan PR 00919 Michael Fernandez info@caraspr.org Tel: 787-673-6101	Non-profit organization that aims to promote sustainable community development to improve the quality of life in marginalized communities in Cataño and Guaynabo Norte through programs in education, ecology and economics. At Fundación Banco Popular we support the structuring of an evening educational center in the Community of Puente Blanco, together with young leaders and mothers from the same community, to provide services to students between kindergarten and sixth grade.	Cataño

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Casa de Niños Manuel Fernández Juncos	PO Box 9020163 San Juan PR 00902 Darwing Duarte cnmfj2016@outlook.com Tel: 787-724-2904	Home shelter whose mission is to offer a preventive educational alternative, which serves children, teens and young people, mostly victims of abuse and neglect. It functions as a home shelter dedicated to the care and protection of children between the ages of 8 and 18 in compliance with the Welfare and Comprehensive Protection of Children Act. It is a preventive educational alternative and a comprehensive care project. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes the pedagogical program to provide structure and training to children residing in the Manuel Fernández Juncos Children's House.	San Juan
Casa Juan Bosco	PO Box 1836 Aguadilla PR 00605 Sor Magda Annette Marrero Berríos directorcbj@outlook.es Tel: 787-882-7027	Casa Juan Bosco Inc. is a non-profit organization located in Aguadilla's urban area, focused on the integral education of children and youth. Its purpose is to prevent the incidence of crime in children and teens living in high-risk sectors. It develops an education and prevention project for children from 4 to 18 years of age during extended school hours with capacity to care for 100 children. Among the services offered are the support in the completion of school tasks and projects; strengthening reading and writing skills; visiting the teachers at the participants' schools; and developing recreational activities that promote a variety of talents and skills.	Aguadilla

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Centro Inés	PO Box 360342 San Juan PR 00936-0342 Jannette Acevedo jannette.acevedo@centroines.org Tel: 787-706-0465	Organization founded with the mission of offering educational, social and cultural services to children, older adults and other community groups with special needs, in order to improve their quality of life. The Center maintains services aimed primarily at an average of 50 children each semester, consisting of supervision of studies, tutoring, recreational and character development activities. Fundación Banco Popular supports the after-school program offered by the organization in order to bridge the gap between academic lag and academic achievement. The offer is complemented by tutors, professional counselors and psychologists.	San Juan
Centro de Adiestramiento para Personas con Impedimento, Inc.	PO Box 119 Aibonito PR 00705 Ana M. Colón capiinc@hotmail.com Tel: 787-735-0066	Non-profit organization founded in Aibonito with the purpose of providing comprehensive employment services to the disabled population as well as home care services to vulnerable populations of low economic resources. Fundación Banco Popular supports the Business Training Program in the area of hydroponics for people with disabilities as an effective independent living program for adults with special needs.	Aibonito

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Centro de Ayuda y Terapia al Niño con Impedimento (AYANI)	140 Calle Monseñor José Torres Moca PR 00676 Migdalia González Lugo mgonzalez@centroayani.org Tel: 787-877-4213	The Center for Assistance and Therapy for Children with Disabilities (AYANI per its Spanish acronym) is a non-profit entity founded in the Western region to offer the best service to children, youth and adults with special needs. It offers physical, occupational, speech/language, psychology, day care and independent living services, a program supported by Fundación Banco Popular, to approximately 1,500 children, youth and adults. The mission of the program is for participants to develop their social skills in order to become part of the labor market.	Moca
Centro de Investigación y Política Pública	1001 Ave. Ponce de León Suite 6 San Juan PR 00907 Arnaldo Cruz aacruz@gmail.com Tel: 787-920-9663	The Center for Research and Public Policy was founded with the goal of providing citizens with analytical information and tools that promote, through empowerment, a more transparent and responsible government. ABRE PR collects, analyzes and communicates the data in a simple and accessible way so that the citizen can understand the effectiveness of Puerto Rico's public policy without the need-to-know statistics. The Fundación Banco Popular grant supports ABRE's efforts in debugging/analyzing data and programming technology for the re-launch of the index and portal.	Islandwide

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Centro de Servicios Ferrán	Calle A #58 Final Bda. Ferrán Ponce PR 00731 Sor Áurea Torres centrodeserviciosferran@gmail.com Tel: 787-234-8210	Organization founded due to the high criminal incidence in the Barriada Ferrán sector in the urban area of Ponce. Managed by the Dominican Sisters of Fatima to provide medical, social and educational services to children, youth and adults, it promotes human principles that lead individuals to their integral development. In addition, it offers alternatives for a healthy lifestyle. At Fundación Banco Popular we support the extended school schedule in order to attain school retention and improve study habits and social attitudes.	Ponce
Centro Educativo Joaquina de Vedruna	2017 Carretera 177 Guaynabo PR 00969 Keila Santos cejv@coqui.net Tel: 787-789-4627	Founded by the Carmelite Sisters of Charity of Vedruna, the center is located in the vicinity of Residencial Alejandrino, in San Juan. Among the services it offers are tutoring and reinforcement of basic skills; psychosocial services; library; snacks; workshops and talks for children and parents; ceramic workshop; painting and crafts workshop; and integration of technology and the arts into the curriculum. Currently, the program supported by Fundación Banco Popular works with children between the ages of 5 and 12 offering a mentoring program, psychosocial support services, art workshops and other recreational activities.	San Juan

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Centro Esperanza	PO Box 482 Loíza PR 00772 Sor Cecilia Serrano Guzmán sorce75@yahoo.com Tel: 787-245-6836	Centro Esperanza provides services to children and families in the community of Loíza and nearby towns. The organization, in its beginnings, served special education to children of low-income families in Loíza because of the high demand for services for this population and the lack of organizations to provide them. At the request of the community, it currently offers Montessori pre-school education services. Fundación Banco Popular supports both its preschool program and music teaching program (violin, viola, saxophone, piano and others) for young people from 7 to 18 years of age.	Loíza
Centro Margarita	RR-03 Box 7260 Cidra PR 00739 Gladys Marrero centromargarita@yahoo.com Tel: 787-739-6030	Founded in Cidra, its mission is to contribute to the physical, social, emotional and intellectual development of the participants to achieve their productive and independent integration into the community. It offers interdisciplinary early intervention services to hundreds of children with special needs. Fundación Banco Popular supports the child-appropriate physical education program.	Cidra
Centro María Mazzarello (Alespi)	PO Box 1877 Orocovis PR 00720 Sor María Ofelia Pérez gpom1913@gmail.com Tel: 787-867-2295	The María Mazzarello Center, Alespi, Inc., is a non-profit institution that arises from the commitment of the Salesian Sisters in Orocovis to create spaces that address different forms of youth poverty, especially young people at high risk of school dropout, abuse and youth exploitation. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes part of the extended school hours program that offers recreational-educational services, such as tutoring, theater development, dance and sports for children and youth.	Orocovis

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Centro Sor Isolina Ferré - Caimito	RR-6 Box 9541 San Juan PR 00926 Luis Ortiz Ortiz mdelmar@csifpr.org Tel: 787-842-0000	Centros Sor Isolina Ferré are dedicated to the revitalization of communities through programs aimed at prevention and educational and vocational training. Service centers located in San Juan and Ponce focus on preventing domestic violence, caring for families and children with special needs, caring for children whose parents are studying, in business education, among others. Fundación Banco Popular supports Surcos an incubator project for community microenterprises focused on training and supporting small entrepreneurs through workshops, individualized assistance in the creation of the business plan, marketing and sales, technology and searching for funds.	San Juan
Ciencia Puerto Rico, LLC	PPO Box 195289 San Juan PR 00919 Giovanna Guerrero giovanna.guerrero-medina@yale.edu Tel: 616-643-7666	Ciencia Puerto Rico was created in 2006 with the purpose of promoting scientific education, research, and science appreciation in Puerto Rico. The organization brought together the scientific community virtually to develop social impact scientific education initiatives. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes the project that trains science teachers in project-based learning, contextualized teaching and collaborations for the development of lessons that include scientific research.	Worldwide

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Club de Lucha Olímpica Sparta	Caparra Terrace 1530 Calle 30 SW San Juan PR 00921 Otoniel Pérez otonielsemprit@gmail.com Tel: 787-550-8042	Club Sparta is a non-profit organization, founded with the intention of developing children and youth in both education and the sport of Olympic wrestling. Its model is one of individual and integral intervention, personalized education and social and psychosocial development from its facilities in Puerto Nuevo. At present, the tutoring program for student-athletes is subsidized to help them improve their academic performance in the basic subjects of Spanish, English and mathematics.	San Juan
Colegio de Educación Especial y Rehabilitación Integral (CODERI)	PO Box 70250, Suite 179 San Juan PR 00936-8250 Francisco J. Martín fmartin@coderipr.com Tel: 787-765-6147	The College of Special Education and Integral Rehabilitation (CODERI per its Spanish acronym) was organized to offer special education and rehabilitation services to children, youth and adults with intellectual disabilities and autism. It provides all the services students, participants and consumers need to develop their intellectual, social and emotional potential to the fullest so they can be part of the community as independent and productive citizens with the same rights and responsibilities. Fundación Banco Popular supports programs of creative movement, music education and creative arts.	San Juan

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Coalición Legal Para Puerto Rico Inc.	Calle Taft #15 Suite 402 San Juan PR 00911 Celina Romany coalicionlegalpr@gmail.com Tel: 787-529-3406 Tel: 787-765-6147	The Legal Coalition for Puerto Rico is a pioneering organization whose mission is to promote and improve access to quality legal services for the country's non-profits. It serves as a liaison between organizations and lawyers willing to provide free legal services to non-profits, community organizations, or similar entities. The Pro Bono/OAT Support Network project, subsidized by Fundación Banco Popular, will offers legal advice to non-profits, communities and similar entities to strengthen their governance, while lawyers invest their pro bono hours.	Islandwide
Colegio San Ignacio de Loyola	Urb. Santa María 1940 Calle Saúco San Juan PR 00927 Timothy Howe, SJ Tim.how@saignacio.pr Tel: 787-765-3814	Colegio San Ignacio de Loyola is a Catholic educational institution at the intermediate and higher levels, founded by the Jesuit Fathers. Together with Popular employees graduated from the school, Fundación Banco Popular awards an annual scholarship to a student to cover part of the tuition fees, annual student fees and materials for the school year.	San Juan
Coro de Niños de San Juan, Inc.	PO Box 19049 San Juan PR 00910-1049 Zilma Cerra zilmacerra@cnsj.org Tel: 787-726-7575	Non-profit organization that aims to educate children and youth in the field of choral music, always maintaining standards of quality and excellence in its educational program. The choir consists of children aged 5 to 18 carefully selected after an evaluation of their musical skills in rhythm, intonation, auditory memory and vocal condition. Fundación Banco Popular supports the San Juan Children's Choir in its overall operation.	San Juan

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Corporación de las Artes Musicales	PO Box 41227 Estación Minillas San Juan PR 00940-1227 Carlos René Ruiz cruiz@icp.pr.gov Tel: 787-723-5005	Public corporation created with the mission of promoting the maximum development and enrichment of the musical expression of the scenic and musical arts in and out of Puerto Rico, with the purpose of creating greater interest in cultural values among citizens and, in particular, in Puerto Rican children and youth. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes some of the expenses associated with the annual execution of the Symphony Experience program designed to develop the musical excellence of young people at the professional level by the Puerto Rico Symphony Orchestra.	Islandwide
Corporación La Fondita de Jesús	PO Box 19384 San Juan PR 00910-1384 Socorro Rivera Rosa srivera@lafonditadejesus.org Tel: 787-724-4051	Corporación La Fondita de Jesús is a community-based non-profit organization founded for the purpose of providing services and support. It promotes the integral development of participants through access to essential services for productive integration into the community, such as housing, medical care, training for self-sufficiency, placement in studies and employment. The donation granted annually by Fundación Banco Popular is used to cover part of the costs of the volunteering and development program for microenterprises.	San Juan
Create, Inc.	PO Box 190969 San Juan PR 00919-0969 Luis Santiago lsantiago@createpr.org Tel: 787-754-6761	Non-profit organization founded in 2000 to help children and young people between the ages of 6 and 21, residing in high-risk communities, achieve their full realization as individuals. Its alternative education prevention project serves high school students in the San José sector of Río Piedras. The Fundación Banco Popular grant supports services provided by educators as well as materials for participants.	San Juan

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Escuela Montessori San Cristóbal	PMB 428 HC-01 Box 29030 Caguas PR 00725-8900 Ivonne Vélez hcsancristobal@gmail.com Tel: 787-744-1777	The Montessori San Cristóbal School emerged as an educational project of the Hogar Cuna San Cristóbal in Caguas to offer a sensitive and alternative quality education for the children housed at the facility. Its mission is to accompany children in their training process to achieve optimal cognitive and socio-emotional development. Fundación Banco Popular supports the overall operations of the organization and the integration of Montessori guides.	Caguas
Fundación Hogar Niñito Jesús, Inc.	PO Box 192503 San Juan PR 00919-2503 Carmen Rivera directora@fhnj.org Tel: 787-748-5682	The Fundación Hogar Niñito Jesús mission is to house and protect children 0-7 years old who have been victims of abuse and neglect. Its mission is to offer love, medical care, good eating habits, education, safety and moral training for its residents. A faithful believer in the healing power of the arts, Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes the Puerto Rico Conservatory of Music's 100 X 35 Music Program for children between the ages of 4 and 7 as well as the dance therapy class.	San Juan
Fundación Música y País	52 Calle Tous Soto Urb. Baldrich San Juan PR 00918 María del Carmen Gil María.delcarmengil@gmail.com Tel: 787-975-7520	Fundación Música y País has the mission of working for the democratization of access to music education as a citizen right and promoting the value of music as an instrument of social change for Puerto Rico. It offers its educational services in centers located in public and private host schools where it provides musical training to children and young people in San Juan, Carolina, Caguas and Guayama. Fundación Banco Popular supports its flagship project, the Youth Symphony Orchestra, composed of instrumentalists representing more than 25 municipalities and major musical institutions.	Islandwide

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Fundación Puertorriqueña Síndrome Down	PO Box 195273 San Juan PR 00919-5273 Francisco Correa Juliá fcorrea@sindromedownpr.org Tel: 787-283-8210	The Puerto Rican Down Syndrome Foundation's mission is to promote the conditions that allow for the effective and productive integration of people with Down Syndrome into the educational and economic structures of the country. The organization was the first and only one to care for children, young people and adults with Down syndrome in order to prepare them to integrate into society independently. Fundación Banco Popular is a faithful believer in the value of the arts for populations with special needs and grants a donation to cover the costs of art-painting workshops, creative dance and body movement.	San Juan
G8	PMB 1873 243 Calle Paris San Juan PR 00917 Lucy M. Cruz Rivera g-8inc.pr@hotmail.com Tel: 787-946-3393	Community organization that brings together the nearly 30,000 residents of the eight communities adjacent to Caño Martín Peña with the mission of improving the quality of life and ensuring the permanence of communities. Among its flagship projects is the transformation of a community elementary campus towards a Specialized School in Leadership and Social Transformation, thus promoting the maximum potential of 145 students.	San Juan
Hogar Colegio La Milagrosa	Urb. Zeno Gandía 987 Ave. Francisco Jiménez González Arecibo PR 00612-93977 Sor Claribel Camacho Figueroa sccfhc@yahoo.com Tel: 787-552-5258	Organization founded in Arecibo, whose purpose is to house girl victims of abuse or neglect. The institution uses a comprehensive intervention model focused on psychosocial and educational development. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes the mentoring program for its residents to ensure better academic achievement, school retention and the provision of special education services. Organization within La Milagrosa Catholic School to house girl's victims of neglect and violence that have been removed from their homes by the state. Fundación Banco Popular supports the after-school program for those girls and part of their special education needs.	Arecibo

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Hogar de Niñas de Cupey	Hna Minra Velez PO BOX 0667 San Juan PR 00928-00667 info@hogardeninasdecupey.org Tel: 787-761-2805	Transitional shelter providing protection and professional assistance to girls between the ages of 4 and 21, who have been removed from their homes because of abuse or neglect. The annual donation of Fundación Banco Popular is geared to the Educational Program that includes the payment of monthly school dues, graduation fees, entrance exams, laboratory classes, electronic platforms, books and teaching materials.	San Juan
Hogares Teresa Toda	PO Box 868 Canóvanas PR 00729 Inés Peña hogaresteresatoda@yahoo.com Tel: 787-886-2060	Located in Loíza, the Teresa Toda Homes welcomes and cares for girls and teens aged 6 to 17, who are in a situation of need or helplessness due to the impossibility or inability to be cared for by their families, or because of abandonment or mistreatment. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes part of the costs of the Edu-Forward Project that provides educational services to 25 residents in private schools with special education and tutoring to prevent dropout and deterioration of the girls' integral development.	Loíza
Iniciativa Tecnológica Centro Oriental, Inc.	PO Box 363744 San Juan PR 00936 Jorge García-Ortiz jorge@ipprpr.org Tel: 787-783-5431	The School of Sciences, Mathematics and Technologies (CIMATEC) of the Municipality of Caguas is an educational center for talented and under-resourced young people from the Eastern Central region who have an interest in professional careers related to science, mathematics or various technologies. The Fundación Banco Popular grant covers part of the tuition, monthly fees and costs of three students at the school.	Caguas

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Instituto del Desarrollo de la Juventud	PO Box 79526 Carolina PR 00984-9526 Amanda Rivera amanda.rivera@juventudpr.org Tel: 787-340-5075	Founded by Boys & Girls Clubs of Puerto Rico, the Youth Development Institute is dedicated to eradicating child poverty in Puerto Rico by collecting, analyzing and disseminating data on poverty, community organization and advocacy for public policies that promote economic security and social mobility. The Fundación Banco Popular grant helps the continued efforts to increase knowledge about children's and youth conditions among elected and public officials in the U.S. and Puerto Rico through educational meetings, dissemination of materials and publications, and information panels.	Islandwide
Instituto Especial para el Desarrollo Integral del Individuo, la Familia y la Comunidad - Guánica	PO Box 1370 Guánica PR 00653 Sor. Julia Cintrón Espinell idiiscoguanica@hotmail.com Tel: 787-821-0546	IDIIFCO's goal is to offer services and workshops aimed at empowering the community, and strengthening the family, through comprehensive development. It offers free services for training, coaching, prevention, mental health, after-school and tutoring programs, psychology, family and couples therapy, and social services.	Guánica

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Instituto Nueva Escuela INE	PO Box 23087 San Juan PR 00931 Jennyffer Otero jotero@inepr.com Tel: 787-758-7766	The Instituto Nueva Escuela (INE) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the academic and social transformation of school communities by implementing Montessori education in public schools and community organizations in Puerto Rico. Currently, INE is the only organization on the Island accredited by Montessori Accreditation Council for Teacher Education (MACTE) to offer Montessori Guide Certification courses for Early, Elementary and Secondary Education levels, as well as being affiliated with the American Montessori Society (AMS) in Puerto Rico. Fundación Banco Popular supports the institute in its strategic growth plan to convert more regular classrooms to the Montessori stream.	Islandwide
Instituto Psicopedagógico de Puerto Rico	PO Box 363744 San Juan PR 00936-3744 Annette Rodriguez arodriguez@ipprpr.org Tel: 787-783-5431	Institute founded in 1949 that provides integrated specialized housing, health, nutrition, education and essential care services to the population of children and adults with mild, moderate, severe and profound intellectual disabilities to improve their quality of life. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes the extended-hour adapted physical education program that incorporates recreational activities and sports for young people, adults and older adults with intellectual disabilities.	Bayamón
Instituto Santa Ana	PO BOX 554 Adjuntas PR 00601 Hna. Ismaela Castro isahogar@gmail.com Tel: 787-829-5904	Located in the mountains of Adjuntas, the Santa Ana Institute (ISA, per it Spanish acronym) provides assistance to girls between the ages of 3 and 14 who have been abused or neglected in their homes. Among the services offered by the organization are shelter, academic tutoring, medical and dental services, psychological services, management of social work cases, guidance, footwear, clothing, food, recreation, and spiritual training. At present, Fundación Banco Popular provides funds for psychosocial assistance and tutoring.	Adjuntas

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Jóvenes de Puerto Rico en Riesgo, Inc.	Edif. Medina 112 Calle Arzuaga Suite 1201 San Juan PR 00925-3312 Maribel Caro mcaro@jovenesenriesgopr.org Tel: 787-753-5541	Organization founded with the mission of developing and implementing preventive programs so that at-risk young people may reach their potential for success through personal and social development workshops accompanied by mentors, teachers and family members. It has academic and psychosocial support centers in public schools in the towns of San Juan, Canóvanas, Juncos and Naguabo and a community-level leadership and service program. The Fundación Banco Popular grant helps cover some of the psychotherapeutic services and workshops.	San Juan
Juan Domingo en Acción	1353 Avenida Luis Vigoreaux PMB 674 Guaynabo PR 00966 Magdalena Hernández mhernandez.jda@gmail.com Tel: 787-783-4034	Organization founded with the purpose of improving the quality of life and promoting the sustainable development of residents of the Juan Domingo community, a pocket of poverty in Guaynabo. The organization supports the needs of La Nueva Escuela Juan Ponce de León and the educational programs of the Juan Domingo community through tutoring services, library, snacks, artistic workshops and recreational activities. The Fundación Banco Popular donation supports the extended academic hours and fine arts and sports program.	Guaynabo
Make Music Happen Corporation	PO Box 11620 San Juan PR 00922-1620 Luis Álvarez Fiol lavarezfiol@gmail.com Tel: 787-396-7249	Organization that coordinates the Berklee-in-Puerto Rico Program to offer educational experiences to talented young people interested in making a career in music with professors from Berklee College of Music—the world’s largest private music education university. The funds designated to the project by Fundación Banco Popular are used to cover part of the expenses of the teachers in charge of the workshops on the Berklee musical instruction method, general theory, auditory training, improvisation, composition and arrangements, among others.	Islandwide

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Mentes Puertorriqueñas en Acción	PO Box 30518 San Juan PR 00929 Alejandro Silva Díaz alejandro@mentespuertorriquenas.org Tel: 787-462-2902	The main objective of the entity is to facilitate the citizen participation of youth with the goal of forging and enhancing agents of change that effectively address social problems in Puerto Rico. It also seeks to insert young people into the country's decision-making and change process as well as to reduce Puerto Rico's brain drain through internship programs, professional networks and training, among other mechanisms. At Fundación Banco Popular we assist in its mission by providing funds to support the overall and programmatic operation.	Islandwide
Mis Amigos de Síndrome de Down	PO Box 69671 Carolina PR 00984-9671 Yolanda Rivera yolanda@masdpr.net Tel: 787-553-0923	Organization that sponsors low-income children with Down Syndrome throughout the island. Their model is one of early intervention through physical, occupational and speech therapies that advance phases in the development of children, which helps them to integrate into society while improving the quality of life for them and their families. The donation granted by Fundación Banco Popular focuses on supporting therapeutic services.	Carolina
Multisensory Reading Centers of Puerto Rico	PO Box 16168 San Juan PR 00908-6168 Yadira Sánchez ysanchez@mrcpr.org (787) 948-1071	Multisensory Reading Centers of PR is a non-profit organization accredited by the International Multisensory Structured Language Education Council (IMSLEC). It seeks to provide effective reading and writing instruction to struggling students in these areas (particularly those with dyslexia); and provide training to educators based on research and structured and multisensory language teaching. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes tutoring services to strengthen literacy skills.	San Juan

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Museo de Arte Contemporáneo de Puerto Rico, Inc.	PO Box 362377 San Juan PR 00936-2377 Marianne Ramírez Aponte mramirez@mac-pr.org Tel: 787-977-4030	The Puerto Rico Museum of Contemporary Art (MAC, per its Spanish acronym) provides an open look at contemporary art from a Puerto Rican perspective, fostering dialogue between artists and their audiences, between established and experimental arts; and between the past and the present. In its educational phase, the MAC creates pedagogical and social links with the different communities it serves: audiences of all ages, local and international; teachers; students; and people with special needs. The Fundación Banco Popular grant is aimed at covering some of the costs of coordinating the educational project and clinical psychology services.	San Juan
Museo de Arte de Ponce	PO Box 9027 Ponce PR 00732 Alejandra Peña apena@museoarteponce.org Tel: 787-840-1510	The Ponce Museum of Art, founded by Luis A. Ferré, is dedicated to the collection, preservation, education, research, conservation and exhibition of the visual arts. One of its main objectives has been to provide all people in Puerto Rico with the transcendental experience of seeing a representative collection of Western art, and to carry out high-impact community activities, as well as academic and institutional collaborations. Fundación Banco Popular supports the museum in the implementation of its Puerto Rico Mío educational project, aimed at preventing school dropout and improving the academic achievement of second through fifth graders at La Carmen Elementary School in Maricao.	Maricao

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Museo de Arte de Puerto Rico	PO Box 41209 San Juan PR 00909 Marta Mabel Pérez mmperez@mapr.org Tel: 787-977-6277	Since its opening in 1996, the Puerto Rico Museum of Art (MAPR, per its Spanish acronym) aims at the documentation, research, interpretation, preservation and conservation of the collection it houses, a Puerto Rican artistic heritage. MAPR has partnerships with local, regional and international museums and institutions to promote knowledge, understanding and access to the visual arts at the local and international levels. Fundación Banco Popular supports the open school program in collaboration with the Central School of Visual Arts, which will offer art workshops and conferences to deepen and strengthen the interdependence between art, science and technology.	San Juan
Niños de Nueva Esperanza, Inc.	PO Box 89 Sabana Seca PR 00952-0089 Michelle Rodríguez infoninosnuevaesperanza@gmail.com Tel: 787-261-4543	Niños de Nueva Esperanza is a non-profit organization located in Toa Baja that offers personalized academic tutoring services and assistance in the psychosocial, sports and artistic areas to children in the community. Fundación Banco Popular subsidizes the Academic Support Program and Photography Workshop to promote the development of artistic skills and academic performance of children and teens in Sabana Seca.	Toa Baja
Nuestra Escuela, Inc.	352 Avenida San Claudio Buzón 133, San Juan PR 00926 Ana Yris Guzmán info@nuestraescuela.org Tel: 787-258-6787	Organization founded in 2000 based on an educational model of personalized intervention and biopsychosocial development for school dropouts in Caguas and Loíza. Nuestra Escuela (Our School) is at the forefront of strengthening the model of alternative education services, complementing its curriculum with co-curricular and extracurricular activities that expose the student to new experiences that develop their talents and ideas. The Fundación Banco Popular donation is aimed at supporting the overall operation of the alternative education program.	Caguas

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Plenitud Iniciativas Ecoeducativas	PO Box 394 Las Marías PR 00670 Paula Paoli Garrido paula@plenitudpr.org Tel: 787-806-7094	Plenitud Iniciativas Educativas was founded in 2010 with the purpose of teaching children and youth on agriculture and food sustainability. At Fundación Banco Popular we support the teaching of agriculture to 1,249 students at Allied Schools and communities	Las Marías
Politécnico Amigó	PO Box 13204 San Juan PR 00908 P. Pablo Osorio Carmona politecnicoamigopr@gmail.com Tel: 787-725-2059	Since 1999, The Amigó Polytechnic responds to the needs of young school dropouts, offering a comprehensive and vocational education that promotes their inclusion in society. The alternative education program from 9th to 12th grade, subsidized in part by Fundación Banco Popular, also offers vocational-operational training, workshops on personal and social development, psychological services, library service, computer laboratory, and sports, among others.	San Juan
Programa de Apoyo y Enlace Comunitario	PO Box 1017 Aguada PR 00602 María Hernández mhernandez.paec@gmail.com Tel: 787-252-3439	Entity founded in 1995 in Aguada to impact the Western region of Puerto Rico with the mission of minimizing social problems from a prevention and intervention perspective for a better quality of life. Its projects are aimed at improving the relationship between parents and children, mentoring at-risk children and youth, mentoring students with poor academic execution, promoting substance abuse prevention and crime through community mobilization, and providing psychosocial support to crime victims. Fundación Banco Popular provides support with a grant of matching funds to the AmeriCorps VISTA federal volunteer program.	Aguada

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Programa Música 100x35 / Conservatorio de Música 100x35	951 Ave. Ponce de Leon San Juan PR 00907 Helen González musical100x35@cmpr.edu Tel: 787-751-0160	Música 100x35 is a program created in 2010 from the famous Venezuelan project El Sistema, a unique social development initiative that - through the use of music - has chiseled a model of prevention and rescue for children and young people with limited economic resources. They are focused on the development in the learning of the instrument, the voice, musical language, and experience of ensemble and orchestra, promoting discipline, and self-esteem, and fostering the values of the community for a healthy coexistence. With the grant of Fundación Banco Popular it is possible to offer final productions for the benefit of the public in artistic centers and theaters.	Islandwide
Proyecto de Educación Comunal de Entrega y Servicio, Inc.	PO Box 647 Punta Santiago Humacao PR 00741 José Oquendo admin@proyectopecesinc.org Tel: 939-213-2153	The Communal Delivery and Service Education Program (P.E.C.E.S, per its Spanish acronym) is a community-based non-profit organization based in Punta Santiago, Humacao. It offers an alternative education curriculum for school dropouts based on psycho-emotional support services, leadership skills, and an academic curriculum focused on personal development, healing, and resilience. Fundación Banco Popular supports P.E.C.E.S. in its administrative operation and in the provision of work experience incentives for students.	Humacao
Puerto Rico Education Foundation Corp.	PO Box 10050 San Juan PR 00922-1620 Enid Marie Reyes ereyes@predfoundation.org Tel: 214-215-1736	Non-profit organization founded to strengthening, innovating and transforming public education in Puerto Rico.	Islandwide

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Red por los Derechos de la Niñez y la Juventud de Puerto Rico	PO Box 190875 San Juan PR 00919-0875 Marcos Santana alianzadealbergues@gmail.com Tel: 787-510-6506	REDENIJ-PR is made up of a coalition of more than 78 shelters, institutions and centers for more than 2,000 children and youth under 21 years of age who are under custody of the state and has more than 40 alliances formalized with the third sector and private agencies .The development and strategic planning efforts of the organization are the result of the collaborative and participative dialog of the different components of the organization, including the board of directors, management, consultants, direct service providers, shelter directors, directors of coalition members, children and youth.	Islandwide
San Jorge Children’s Foundation	PO Box 6719 San Juan PR 00914-6719 Stephanie Moore smoore@sanjorgechildrensfoundation.org Tel: 787-641-1941	San Jorge Children’s Foundation is a non-profit organization established in 1995 with the mission of helping improve the quality of life of children and youth with medical needs and from low-income families so that they can access the most advanced treatments. At Fundación Banco Popular we support the organization’s school program that hires certified teachers to offer academic assistance to patients who must be out of school due to a chronic health condition.	San Juan

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
SER de Puerto Rico	PO Box 364189 San Juan PR 00936-4189 Nilda Rosa Morales nmorales@serpr.org Tel: 787-767-6710	The PR Education and Rehabilitation Society (SER, per its Spanish acronym) is a non-profit entity that provides education and rehabilitation services to children and adults with functional diversity, autism or developmental problems in the centers of San Juan, Ponce, and Ceiba. The Fundación Banco Popular supports the inclusive model, including children with functional diversity, of the Southwest region. The program seeks to place its participants in mainstream education with little or no assistance after the therapies are completed.	Ponce
Taller Folklórico Central	PO Box 367 Orocovis PR 00720 María M. Torres Díaz Torresm076@gmail.com Tel: 787-391-0491	Organization founded in 2008 with the purpose of promoting the teaching of Puerto Rican cultural folklore through educational workshops on trova, Puerto Rican music, and improvisation and décimas. They are located in the town of Orocovis and currently serve more than 40 children and youth from central Puerto Rico. The Foundation supports the appointment of workshop leaders for cuatro, guitar, güiro, composition, and improvisation of typical music.	Orocovis
Taller Salud, Inc.	PO Box 524 Loíza PR 00772 Tania Rosario Méndez info@tallersaludpr.org Tel: 787-876-3440	Taller Salud is a community-based feminist organization that aims to improve women's access to health, reduce violence in community settings and promote economic development through popular education and citizen participation. Fundación Banco Popular is the main investor of the Peace Agreement Program that seeks to reduce the violent incidents reported in Loíza through mentoring and case management, mediation in about 300 conflicts reported annually and training on economic development to participants.	Loíza

Organization	Address & Contact Information	Project supported by FBP	Geographic Area Impacted
Vitrina Solidaria, Inc.	PO BOX 363523 San Juan PR 00936-3523 Raquel Skerrett vitriNASolidaria@gmail.com Tel: 787-690-7272	Vitrina Solidaria is a non-profit organization with the mission of strengthening the fabric of Puerto Rican business solidarity, educating the consumer, increasing the demand for products and investing in supportive entrepreneurs. Vitrina promotes the best artisanal production and promotes equal opportunities for entrepreneurs through training, backing, marketing and sales activities. The Fundación Banco Popular grant supports the development and business training of entrepreneurs from different regions of Puerto Rico.	Río Grande