IMPORTANT NOTICE USA PATRIOT ACT

Section 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act was effective on October 1, 2003. This law requires financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record the information that identifies persons opening accounts. The USA government created this law as a measure to fight terrorism and money laundering.

When you open an account:

- We will ask your name, home or street address, date of birth, social security number, and any other information deemed necessary to allow us to positively identify you.
- We will ask to see your valid driver's license or other valid identification with photo issued by the government.

Thanks for allowing us to serve you. Confidentiality of the information gathered by Popular, Inc. will be maintained as required under the Privacy Act.
