

PREMIA® Program Terms and Conditions

The PREMIA® program (the "Program") offers Banco Popular de Puerto Rico's clients and any other affiliated entity that may from time to time offer the Program (collectively, "Popular") the opportunity to earn points. The earned points can be used for the redemption of prizes via the transactions or activities that Popular determines from time to time. The Program is based on a measurement system with points (the "Points"). Points are owned by Popular. The earned Points have no monetary value and cannot be transferred by operation of law to any entity or person. Popular reserves the right to alter, modify or suspend any functionality or benefit of the Program including, among others, the annual membership fee, the criteria for accrual or redemption of Points, or to cancel or temporarily suspend the Program at any time. When said change is made, a revised version of the Terms and Conditions will be published on the Program website www.premia.com. The changes will be effective and will take effect on the date of their publication. It is your responsibility to review the Terms and Conditions to identify any modification made thereto from time to time.

A. Program Eligibility

1. Customers with credit cards that have the Program included as part of their Credit Card Program are eligible to participate and will automatically be enrolled. The client must be the primary account holder and comply with the terms and conditions established in the Program.
2. The Program is not available to the International Branch of Banco Popular or Popular Bank.
3. Once enrolled in the Program, you can begin to earn points for the accounts eligible for the Program and in which the client appears as the primary holder.
4. Each eligible account will be registered only once in the Program. In no case, the same eligible account or transaction may earn Points for more than one client simultaneously.

B. Membership Cost

1. The Program is free for customers with credit card products that have the PREMIA® Program included as part of the rewards benefits according to the Terms and Conditions established in the Account Opening Disclosures.
2. A $25 annual fee will be applied to customers who maintain a product which does not include the Program as part of its benefits. This charge will be applied annually and may be collected in any of the accounts registered in the Program. In the event that you close this account and do not replace it with another account in which the Membership can be billed, the Membership will be canceled without prior notification. The Client must call 1-800-3PREMIA within the first thirty (30) days after the cancellation, to provide a new checking or savings account, if interested in re-installing the Membership by paying the annual fee. If you don't notify, your Membership will be permanently cancelled and you will have a ninety (90) day period to redeem the points you have accumulated so far. After the ninety (90) days, the points will be void and cannot be used.
 - i. Customers with the optional Program credit card - The annual fee of $25 will be debited from one of the credit cards registered in the Program in the month of the anniversary of the Membership.
 - ii. Non-Credit Card Customers - The $25 annual fee will be billed to the deposit or savings account that is currently billed, on the month of the Membership's anniversary.

C. Membership Ownership

1. Participation in the Program is limited to one (1) per person ("Client"). The Client will be the primary holder.
2. Only the Client may (i) have access to the information regarding their participation in the Program and (ii) redeem Points for prizes and / or services of the Program. The Client may not authorize any third party to access the Program and if they do so, they will be fully responsible for any action or omission made by said third party.

D. Points Earning and Expiration

1. Transactions that will earn points are those described in the PREMIA® Points Earning and Expiration Table Addendum that is available in the Program website www.premia.com in the Earn Points section and in other communications that may be sent from time to time by Popular. You may also earn Points through promotions that Popular may carry out from time to time, subject to the terms and conditions of said promotions, as well as through other financial relationships you may have with Popular. The Points will be credited and debited depending on the type of transaction, and the details are available on the Program's website, which can be amended, updated and/or modified from time to time to reflect the current Program prizes. If you do not have Internet access, you can call 1-800-3PREMIA.
2. Popular will determine from time to time the maximum number of points that can be earned by different transactions, products, or financial relationships with Popular. The maximum earning amount is included in the PREMIA® Points Earning and Expiration Table Addendum.
3. Only those accounts where the Client appears as primary holder will earn Points. In cases of joint accounts, it will apply to the owner who appears as the primary in the account.
4. Points will not be earned in the Program for cash advance transactions, through an ATM or other cash equivalent transactions, such as buying foreign or local currencies, money orders, traveler's checks, bet chips in casinos or lottery tickets. Payments done through Telepago, loan payments, including, but not limited to, mortgage or car loan payments, will not earn Points. Also excluded from earning points are Club del Ahorro, Commercial Accounts (except B-Smart®), Corporate Visa®, Visa® Return, Visa® AAdvantage®, Visa® Cash Rewards, JetBlue Mastercard, JetBlue Mastercard Eleva, JetBlue Card, and any another product or account that does not include the Program in its Opening Disclosures.
5. The points awarded for other relationships, according to the PREMIA® Points Earning and Expiration Table Addendum, will be reflected monthly and will take into consideration the eligible relationships that are open the previous month as of the close of the first business day of the following month. If you have two accounts of the same product type, they will be considered as one relationship.
6. Points earned for purchases on eligible credit cards will be reflected daily, including purchases posted until the close of the previous day.
7. To see your balance, you can access www.premia.com or by calling 1-800-3PREMIA.
8. Credits for reversed transactions, returns or adjustments may reduce or eliminate Points, causing a negative balance of Points. Unauthorized charges incurred on a credit card will not earn Points.
9. Any change from a credit card product enrolled in the Program to a credit card not eligible to the Program will have the effect of eliminating the Points earned at the time of making the change. You may choose to redeem the earned Points before requesting the product change. Once the change is made and the points are eliminated, the Points cannot be reinstated.
10. Any adverse condition or mismanagement of your account, including but not limited to, blocked, past due or over limits, will result in the suspension of earning of Points and the elimination of the Points that have been earned without the need for prior notification or notice.
11. Any objection, claim or doubts related to your Points balance must be notified / claimed within sixty (60) days from the date of the account statement by calling 1-800-3PREMIA. Popular will evaluate the claim and, where appropriate, determine to apply the credit or the corresponding adjustments. Popular reserves the right to attend or not the claims that are not made and received within the term established to make claims on the Program.
12. The points earned with the credit cards of the Mastercard Black, Black Dual and Visa Infinite products do not expire. Points earned with other credit card products will expire on December 31, four (4) years from the date they were earned. For example, points earned in June 2021 will expire on December 31, 2025. Points awarded as a monthly bonus for other relationships with Popular, as described in the PREMIA® Points Earning and Expiration Table Addendum, will be awarded to the credit card with the best expiration rule. In the event of not having a credit card eligible for the Program, the bonus points awarded will expire on December 31, four (4) years from the date they were earned.

E. Points Redemption

1. The Client may redeem the Points for rewards at any time, as long as there are enough Points for the desired reward. To redeem Points, registered accounts must be open and cannot have adverse conditions, as set forth in Section D. You may redeem your Points through the website www.premia.com or by calling 1-800-3PREMIA.
2. In eligible Business accounts, Points may be redeemed by the person designated in such account as the Authorized Redeemer. It is the responsibility of the owner of these eligible Business accounts to keep this information current to reflect any changes that occur or may occur with the person designated as Authorized Redeemer. Upon making any changes, Points will remain in the account and may be redeemed by the person who has been designated as the new Authorized Redeemer.
3. Redeemed Points will be immediately deducted from the Points balance, starting with the Points that were first earned and in chronological order, followed by the most recent ones.
4. All rewards are subject to availability. Certain rewards are available only during the time periods described in Program communications (including the Program website). Restrictions may apply.
5. The Terms and Conditions of each reward are disclosed on the website and are established by the merchants and / or service provider. It is your responsibility to read the Terms and Conditions before making your redemption. Rewards and participating merchants are subject to change and availability may be limited.
6. Once Points are redeemed, they may not be returned, replaced, refunded, reinstalled, or exchanged for cash, credit, or other rewards or Points. There will also be no refund of money, partial or complete, when the prizes are redeemed, lost, or stolen.
7. Except when expressly indicated, each reward is supplied by external suppliers. Popular is not the seller or supplier of the rewards or services or the associated gift cards, guarantees or insurance. Only the seller or supplier is responsible for the gift cards and services provided.
8. We reserve the right to modify or cancel any reward at any time.
9. You will receive notifications related to your redemptions through the email associated with your record as a Popular client.
10. By participating in the Program and accepting and using the rewards obtained through the Program, you (in your name and on behalf of any person to whom you grant the benefits of the Program) release and absolve from liability, Popular and its respective companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, administrators, employees, officers, and directors, of all claims, damages or liability, including without limitation, physical injury or death arising from participation in the Program, travel taken or use of products purchased in connection with the Program. 2. Points only cover the base rental rate. All taxes, fees, insurance, surcharges, additional days, additional hours, upgrades to superior car classes, optional services, or equipment (if applicable), are the responsibility of the renter and are paid at the rental counter.

3. You can use Points, Points plus cash or all cash for car rental reservations with the selection of car rental companies shown available on the website. Car reservations will be paid in advance at the time of reservation and payment of costs not covered using Points will be made to the registered credit card.
4. A valid credit card must be presented in the driver's name at the rental counter for any additional charges.
5. Rentals are subject to standard rental conditions and rates, as well as car availability at the time and place of rental.
6. Cars must be returned to the original rental location.

8. Reservations for all car groups are subject to availability. Vehicles can only be booked by vehicle class and not by vehicle make or model.
9. The performance of car rental services by the car rental company must be under a standard rental agreement in force at the time of rental, which must be performed by the Renter at the time of collection.

G. Termination or Cancellation

1. The Client who participates in the Program and does not have a Popular Credit Card that has the Program included, can cancel their participation in the Program at any time. Popular will not refund the $25 annual membership fee, unless such cancellation occurs within sixty (60) days after Popular has charged the current year's annual membership fee.
2. The Client who acquired their participation through a Credit Card that has the Program included, will have to cancel such credit card to cancel their participation in the Program. The Client who cancels their participation in the Program will continue to be responsible for any transaction made by the Client or another authorized person prior to the cancellation, including, but not limited to, those transactions that result in a negative balance of Points, in which case, the Client must answer for any expense incurred by Popular as a result of the granting of benefits in excess of the available Points.
3. The client who acquired their participation through a PMA, Popular Plus or BSmart deposit account will maintain their participation in the Program while said account is open. Closing the account will have the effect of canceling the participation in the Program.
4. Popular reserves the right to audit Program participation and linked accounts at any given moment, and to verify compliance with the Program Terms and Conditions. In case an audit reveals any irregularity, including that the Client is not up to date with his / hers obligations to Popular, or if the Client or any other individual with access to participation in the Program infringes on any of the provisions, Terms and Conditions of the account(s) or the Program, including but not limited to fraud, excessive transactions, account mismanagement, or any other factors that could constitute abuse of the Program, the balance of Points, as well as the accrual of Points and/or participation in the Program, will be canceled, and any expenses incurred will be charged to any of the accounts registered in the Program. This disqualification may be temporary or permanent. Any determination made in relation to the termination of the participation (including the cancellation of Points) will be firm and final.

5. Earned Points are not transferrable or inheritable. If the Client willingly cancels participation in the Program or if the participation is canceled for any reason, the Client will no longer be considered a Program Client, and all accrued Points will be completely voided, regardless of the origin of the Points.

Points that have already been redeemed may be used as established by each reward's terms and conditions. If Popular terminates or cancels the Program, (i) earned Points will not be reimbursed, and (ii) regarding the annual fee paid for that year, Popular reserves the right to reimburse the fee.
2. Points may not be sold, exchanged, or bought by third parties. If any person or entity obtains Points or rewards in this manner, they will be considered fraudulently obtained and will be voided. 3. Popular reserves the right to solve any claims arising from transactions related to the Program by granting Points.
4. Popular reserves the right to eliminate any Points earned through unauthorized transactions. Only those commercial transactions made with a commercial credit card that qualify for the Program, as determined from time to time by Popular, will earn Points.
