REFLEJOS
de mi país

Puerto Rico is a land filled with beauty, talent, and culture. Over the years, Popular's music specials have offered a way to celebrate who we are and to share what makes us unique with our people, both on and off the island. With this new production, Reflejos de mi país, we invite you to take a fresh look at Puerto Rico and rediscover the places, sounds, and stories that connect us to our homeland.

The special takes us through some of our island's most iconic settings: caves, waterfalls, forests, rivers, karst formations, beaches, and other landscapes that are part of our lives and our history. Filmed in various towns, including Arecibo, Vega Alta, San Juan, Las Piedras, Vieques, Loíza, and Luquillo, this project reminds us of Puerto Rico's richness and diversity.

It also celebrates our music through performances by artists spanning generations and styles, including Pedro Capó, iLe, Choco Orta, Moncho Rivera, Tony Vega, Didi Romero, Pirulo, Daymé Arocena, Christian Alicea, Ámbar Bonilla, Víctor Santiago, Jay Wheeler, Guaynaa, Bebo Dumont, Frido Vargas, Circo, and other talented performers who breathe new life into songs we all cherish.

These include songs such as "Amanecer borincano," "Yo habito una tierra luz," "Al ver sus campos," "Moliendo café," "Sal a caminar," "La vida campesina," and "El jíbaro y la naturaleza"—songs that speak to our roots, our landscapes, and the way we feel about Puerto Rico and tell its story.

This special means a great deal to me. Over the years, as a viewer, I have come to appreciate the value of these productions: their ability to bring us together, celebrate our culture, and remind us of what unites us as Puerto Ricans. Today, as I share it with you as President and Chief Executive Officer of Popular, I do so with great pride and a deep sense of commitment.

Thank you, once again, for welcoming this production, which we have prepared with so much care. I hope you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed bringing it to life.
